PUBLIC TESTIMONY

*PRIORITY* HB 130 (Matthews) SCS HCS HB 130 was voted DO PASS 4-1 with Sen. Romine voting no. - Establishes a regulatory system for transportation network companies.

Rep. Matthews indicated this will create a statewide regulatory system for ride sharing such as Uber and Lyft. He indicated Uber has stated this will create 10,000 new jobs in Missouri. Rep. Matthews indicated the service is in high demand especially among business travelers, helps reduce drunk driving, and provides mobility for the visually impaired. He stated this is almost identical to SB 185 and passed out of the House with 140 votes. Rep. Matthews stated it includes the compliance audits for Kansas City and is a free market bill.

- Sen. Romine asked if Rep. Matthews had any concerns about the amendments on the bill? Rep. Matthews stated he did not.

In Support of HB 130

Bobby Kellman (Manager of Policy Issues for Uber)

Kellman stated this will create 10,000 new jobs in Missouri, provides for background checks, and through the audit process allows for transparency. He stated it is identical to Sen. Onder's bill.

In Opposition of HB 130

Basil Rudawsky (St. Louis County Cab Company)

Rudawsky stated he has been working with Sen. Schatz's office to create parity language. He stated what they have developed doesn't change the existing language, it just includes cabs wherever Transportation Network Companies (TNCs) are mentioned. Rudawsky asks that whichever version of the bill moves forward, that cabs are given the equitable treatment in that language.

- Sen. Schatz asked if Sen. Onder had any objections to this language? Rudawsky stated they were meeting with him this afternoon, but he was not aware of Sen. Onder having any objections.
- Sen. Schatz indicated he wants this to create a level playing field with no special carve outs.
- Sen. Romine asked Rep. Matthews if he was comfortable with this language? Rep. Matthews indicated that if cab companies need legislative changes they should propose them. He indicated elements would still be different and that no he is not comfortable with it as it is.

- Sen. Curls stated that the elderly and disabled are two groups she is concerned for and wants to make sure cabs are protected also.
- Rep. Matthews indicated that a taxi can register as a TNC. He indicated that things in the bill goes a long way toward parity, but when it comes to insurance cabs don't want parity. Rep. Matthews states that TNCs will have $1M in insurance and cabs only have $400,000.
- Rep. Matthews indicated there is nothing in the bill to stop cabs from operating.
- Sen. Schatz asked if cabs would be alright with the same level of insurance. Rudawsky indicated the TNC insurance was not available to the general public and that it is a special TNC policy. He stated that commercial policies are for 24/7 and Uber's policy only has $1M when they are on a trip, not any other times. Rudawsky stated it would be an unfair hardship to have the $1M policy. Sen. Schatz stated he was not sure it would create that much of a hardship. Rudawsky stated that last year Uber was alright with the cabs having a different insurance level.

(?)Robert Glenn (St. Louis Taxi Driver)

Glenn indicated he has to pay for yearly physicals and taxes and that those cost should be applied to all.

?? (St. Louis Taxi Driver)

?? stated he has been a taxi driver for 21 years and that business is down because of Uber. He stated that the same rules and regulations should apply to all. ?? indicated that every year he has to pay $125 for a license, $50 for a physical, and $50 for a drug test. He stated cabs have to pay $4 every time they go to the airport and Uber drivers don't. ?? stated that the Taxi Commission can pull him over for not being in uniform, not shaving, etc. Sen. Schatz stated he believes that cab are overregulated by the Taxi Commission.

?? (St. Louis Metro Taxi Driver)

?? indicated he drove cabs from 1987 to 94 and since 1994 has worked as a ???. He stated all they want is equal protection under the law. He stated that the taxi industry is caught up with the technology and can take credit cards and PayPal.

(?)Darrin Holeman (Cab Driver for 5 Years, St. Louis Area)

Holeman stated he has worked in law enforcement in the past and that standards mean something. He stated that children and elderly can count on cab drivers to be drug free and meet other standards. Holeman stated that Uber drivers have standards, but the taxi cab standards are more strict and he urges the committee to be fair.

- Sen. Curls stated that the cabs are over regulated by the Taxi Commission and hopes that can be worked out.
- Holeman indicated he believes in have standards.

For Information Only on HB 130

John Bardgett (Lobbyist for St. Louis Metro Taxi Corporation)

Bardgett indicated this is a great service for cities and counties and that if a couple of state statutes could be removed the Taxi Commission could rewrite the code to ease regulation. He indicated the proposed language to allow cabs to pick annually if they want to be a TNC or a Taxi would be difficult for the industry to manage and hard to regulate.

Bill Gamble (Lobbyist City of Kansas City)

Gamble indicated Kansas City wants to remain neutral and that they appreciate the audit language and want to work with the committee and cabs to maintain parity. He stated a few points for the committee to keep in mind:

- The meters in cabs need to be regulated and checked.
- Uber has transparency on rates charged, but that taxi rates need to be regulated.
- Cabs have a designated lot at airports for security.
- Drivers need to be fingerprinted for security.

Gamble stated that Kansas City is willing to work with all, but that a rental car agency is out language shopping and has proposed language which undoes the fee which supports the Sprint Center. He stated this will unravel Kansas City's ability to pay off its bonds.

- Sen. Curls asked about if this was a local tax or fee. Gamble stated they had ran it past their legal group and feel firmly that it will affect the funding source voted on by people.
- Sen. Munzlinger asked if the meters were not already checked by the Department of Agriculture? Gamble stated they check them.

Rep. Matthews stated that Bardgett's reference to cabs picking whether they want to be a TNC or cab annually is not in this year's bill. He stated it was in last year's version and there are different levels to consider when talking about parity.

EXECUTIVE SESSION

SCS for HCS for HB 130 was adopted by voice vote.

SCS HCS HB 130 was voted DO PASS 4-1 with Sen. Romine voting no.

PUBLIC TESTIMONY

SB 180 (Nasheed) - Limits the use of physical restraints on pregnant or postpartum offenders.

Nasheed indicated the committee substitute changed four areas in the first bill:

1. Made technical changes
2. Change 2nd and 3rd trimester to 3rd trimester
3. Made it subject to both state and federal law
4. Under 217.154 stated that entities will not be held liable for damages caused by not shackling offenders.

In Support of SB 180

Samuel Lee (Campaign Life Missouri)

Lee indicated that 6% to 10% of women coming into prison are pregnant and often they have higher risk pregnancies. He stated the national commission has recommendations for procedures which are in this bill and that they are in favor of the bill.

- Sen. Schatz asked if these are best practices? Lee stated yes on when to shackle and when not to and that these were worked out in last year's legislation.
- Sen. Romine asked if last year's changes are in the current language. Lee stated it was his understanding they were.

Katheryn Curves (Mizzou Law Student)

Curves gave an example of a case where a pregnant lady had been shackled and stated there are two cases the ACLU are working on currently.

- Sen. Romine asked if this addresses the changes from last year? Curves stated it does.

Theresa O'Brien (3rd Year Mizzou Law Student)

O'Brien stated that last year there were 64 births where mothers were shackled and this poses a greater risk to both the mother and the baby. She stated that shackles should only be used in extreme circumstances and they should be the least restrictive as possible. She stated that all that is needed is education for the officers and inmates.

(?)Rita Landolt

Landolt indicated this creates dangers to women and babies.

Alice Dreith (Executive Director NARAL Pro-Choice Missouri)

Dreith stated we need to establish minimum standards and was glad to see this included postpartum offenders.

Sara Baker (American Civil Liberties Union, Missouri)

She indicated there are two cases currently in Missouri and that they support the bill.

Kaycee Nail (Lobbyist March of Dimes, Missouri)

Nail indicated shackling puts both the mother and child at serious health risk.

Mary Beck (Clinical Professor Emerita Law, Mizzou)

Beck stated her students have helped in writing this legislation and that the Mennonite communities locally take the inmate's babies and raise them until the mother is released and then they help the mother to get reintegrated in society. She stated it is from this Mennonite community that she found out about this issue. Beck stated that in emergency circumstances when every second counts, the shackles get in the way. She stated only a few slides to educate those involved is all that is necessary.

In Opposition of SB 180: None

For Information Only on SB 180

Jessica Pabst (Advocacy Director SSM Health Care)

Pabst stated that all the issues identified last year have been taken care of and they are comfortable with the legislation. She stated that is good when pro-life and pro-choice organizations are both in favor of the bill.

SB 233 (Wallingford) - Creates and modifies certain laws relating to emergency communication services.

Sen. Wallingford stated the 911 system needs modernization. He stated Missouri is the only state with no 911 funding and that 28 counties can't locate where a 911 call originates. Sen. Wallingford stated that most people don't realize the 911 service is not the same statewide and that the FCC recommends consolidation. He stated Missouri can't even apply for grants since it doesn't have a statewide network. He stated this bill will allow for statewide consolidation and the establishment of a 911 board. He stated funding would be at the county level by public vote up to 1% and that from 1% to 1.5% would need state board approval and could generate $7M annually.

- Sen. Munzlinger asked what would be consolidated? Sen. Wallingford stated the 163 public answering points in 114 counties and that they can't get funding from the federal grants without statewide coordination.
- Sen. Munzlinger stated that some counties don't even have 911 addressing and he has had difficulty in getting county commissioners in his district interested. He asked if this would be mandatory? Sen. Wallingford stated there would be funding available from the surcharge and that with statewide coordination it might help.

In Support of SB 233

Rance Duffy (Executive Director Christian County Emergency Services, Missouri Chapter NENA)

Duffy stated Missouri is about 15 years behind and that lack of statewide coordination is causing us to miss out on federal funds. He stated new technology is coming and would encourage consolidation and that the current law is restrictive in how they can coordinate.

Eric Wienberg (sp) (Public Safety Coordinator in Kansas City)

Wienberg stated there is a lot of duplication of effort.

Jr Webb (911 Director, Springfield)

Webb indicated this will help areas get funding and support. He indicated he has been involved with two consolidations and that it can happen.

John Bradley (Retired State Rep., Marion County)

Bradley indicated they don't have "Phase 2" 911 and that if you come into Polk County on I-29 and don't know where you are 911 can't find you. He stated they have had to have people drive to the nearest crossroads to direct emergency personnel.

Trent Ford(?) (Lobbyist)

Dave McCracken (?) (Lobbyist Missouri Police Chief)

Karen Engler – American Heart Association

Greater KC Chamber of Commerce

Jessica Petrie (Lobbyist, National Association of Social Workers)

Todd Smith (Missouri Association of Counties)

And others to follow

In Opposition of SB 233: None

For Information Only on SB 233: None

SB 198 (Schaaf) - Enacts a regulatory scheme for weigh station and inspection site bypass services.

Sen. Schaaf stated it costs $9 when a truck sits in a weigh station line and there is technology which allows them to bypass weigh scales and still be weighed in, but only one company PrePass provides that in Missouri. He stated that employees of MoDOT sit on the company's board and they don't allow the sharing of data. Sen. Schaaf stated it is costing the state money and this will move the scales under the Highway Patrol from MoDOT and require the sharing of data. He stated it will provide consistent rules and no arbitrary limits on the number of sites. Sen. Schaaf indicated the fiscal note costs can be removed with one sentence in the legislation.

- Sen. Schatz asked how this will save money? Sen. Schaaf stated they won't have to have staff to run weigh station. Sen. Schatz stated that if the vehicle is out of compliance it will still have to pull over and so the weigh stations will still need to be staffed. Sen. Schaaf stated that this will allow more collection of better data and facilitate competition to allow lower cost.
- Sen. Libla stated that the users pay for system when it is going and would like to visit with someone from the company.
- Sen. Munzlinger asked who paid for the weigh and motion systems currently in place? Sen. Schaaf stated that we "the state" pays for the data and we should have access to it. Sen. Munzlinger asked who should have access? Sen. Schaaf indicated the people of Missouri. Sen. Munzlinger stated if this is another company who wants the data, they should pay for it. Sen. Schaaf stated that is not what he is talking about. He stated that MoDOT gets all the information after the fact and we can't get it from MoDOT, it is not able to be sunshined.
- Sen. Munzlinger indicated he would like to allow competition, but would like more information.
- Sen. Schatz stated this is about the equipment which reads weight and motion and the sharing of that equipment and should a company have to place new equipment when it already exist?

Brian Heath (Drivewyze)

Heath stated that there are conditions which stop them from operating in Missouri. He stated regulators sit on a competitor's company's board and this is a corrupt process. He would like a fair and level playing field and to let the marketplace decide.

- Sen. Libla asked if Heath had called the Highway Patrol and MoDOT corrupt? Heath stated no, he called the process corrupt and that they had been involved in a pilot program which had been "killed". Sen. Libla asked for more information on the pilot and if Heath had gotten any money from Missouri for the pilot? Heath stated no.
- Sen. Libla asked how much Drivewyze has invested in Missouri? Heath stated they have invested in the technology and in personnel. Sen. Libla asked for a list of state where Drivewyze has been installed. Heath indicated that is unique.
- Sen. Libla indicated that MoDOT has an RFP out right now and Drivewyze has an opportunity. Heath indicated the RFP was not fair and grandfathered the prior company in.
- Sen. Dixon asked about the pilot project? Heath stated the pilot was a way to share information and it had been successful and had no written complaints.
- Sen. Dixon asked why it had not moved forward? Heath stated because the Col. of the Highway Patrol sat on the company's board. Sen. Dixon asked if the pilot was not successful because it was not 100% accurate? Heath stated they were asked to meet a requirement they were not allowed to meet. Sen. Dixon stated they were not 100% accurate and it was based on cell phone technology. Heath stated it was based on cellular technology not cell phones and the devices use GPS and cellular service. Sen. Dix stated it was subject to network outages.
- Sen. Dixon indicated Drivewyze had told him that Prime was a customer, but when he talked to Prime they are not currently a customer. Heath stated they are not currently a customer, but use his technology.
- Heath indicated that new companies have to have ASTM level 3 equipment, but PrePass can use the ASTM level 2 equipment. He asked for a level playing field.
- Sen. Schatz stated Heath might want to say "conflict of interest" instead of "corrupt".
- Heath stated that under PrePass the shareholders are getting the money. Sen. Libla stated that HELP and PrePass are public-private partnerships and don't have shareholders.
- Heath stated they are willing to share the cost for the access.

Richard McIntosh (Lobbyist, Drivewyze)

McIntosh stated they are not asking for a free ride and had tried all other options and this was the last resort. He stated the RFP requires new companies to meet standards the existing companies are not required to meet.

David Binder (Drivewyze)

Binder stated he spent 25 years in law enforcement and the MSHP is the premier agency who we look to for best practices. He stated in Florida the highway patrol has removed themselves from the PrePass Board. He stated they can do dynamic messaging and that other companies aren't being made to do what they can do. He stated it is not fair that Drivewyze has to do what the other companies do, but the other companies don't have to do what Drivewyze does.

- Sen. Libla indicated he was glad the boards exist and they provide a valuable service.

The committee adjourned due to the time and will continue this hearing next week.

Rudawsky asks that whichever version of the bill moves forward, that cabs are given the equitable treatment in that language.

- Sen. Schatz asked if Sen. Onder had any objections to this language? Rudawsky stated they were meeting with him this afternoon, but he was not aware of Sen. Onder having any objections.
- Sen. Schatz indicated he wants this to create a level playing field with no special carve outs.

- Rep. Matthews indicated that a taxi can register as a TNC. He indicated that things in the bill goes a long way toward parity, but when it comes to insurance cabs don't want parity. Rep. Matthews states that TNCs will have $1M in insurance and cabs only have $400,000.
- Rep. Matthews indicated there is nothing in the bill to stop cabs from operating.
- Sen. Schatz asked if cabs would be alright with the same level of insurance. Rudawsky indicated the TNC insurance was not available to the general public and that it is a special TNC policy. He stated that commercial policies are for 24/7 and Uber's policy only has $1M when they are on a trip, not any other times. Rudawsky stated it would be an unfair hardship to have the $1M policy. Sen. Schatz stated he was not sure it would create that much of a hardship. Rudawsky stated that last year Uber was alright with the cabs having a different insurance level.

For Information Only on HB 130

John Bardgett (Lobbyist for St. Louis Metro Taxi Corporation)

Bardgett indicated this is a great service for cities and counties and that if a couple of state statutes could be removed the Taxi Commission could rewrite the code to ease regulation. He indicated the proposed language to allow cabs to pick annually if they want to be a TNC or a Taxi would be difficult for the industry to manage and hard to regulate.

Bill Gamble (Lobbyist City of Kansas City)

SCS HCS HB 130 was voted DO PASS 4-1 with Sen. Romine voting no.

In Support of SB 180

Samuel Lee (Campaign Life Missouri)

Lee indicated that 6% to 10% of women coming into prison are pregnant and often they have higher risk pregnancies. He stated the national commission has recommendations for procedures which are in this bill and that they are in favor of the bill.

- Sen. Schatz asked if these are best practices? Lee stated yes on when to shackle and when not to and that these were worked out in last year's legislation.

- Sen. Romine asked if this addresses the changes from last year? Curves stated it does.

O'Brien stated that last year there were 64 births where mothers were shackled and this poses a greater risk to both the mother and the baby. She stated that shackles should only be used in extreme circumstances and they should be the least restrictive as possible. She stated that all that is needed is education for the officers and inmates.

(?)Rita Landolt

Landolt indicated this creates dangers to women and babies.

Alice Dreith (Executive Director NARAL Pro-Choice Missouri)

Dreith stated we need to establish minimum standards and was glad to see this included postpartum offenders.

Sara Baker (American Civil Liberties Union, Missouri)

She indicated there are two cases currently in Missouri and that they support the bill.

Kaycee Nail (Lobbyist March of Dimes, Missouri)

Nail indicated shackling puts both the mother and child at serious health risk.

Mary Beck (Clinical Professor Emerita Law, Mizzou)

Beck stated her students have helped in writing this legislation and that the Mennonite communities locally take the inmate's babies and raise them until the mother is released and then they help the mother to get reintegrated in society. She stated it is from this Mennonite community that she found out about this issue. Beck stated that in emergency circumstances when every second counts, the shackles get in the way. She stated only a few slides to educate those involved is all that is necessary.

In Opposition of SB 180: None

For Information Only on SB 180

Jessica Pabst (Advocacy Director SSM Health Care)

SB 233 (Wallingford) - Creates and modifies certain laws relating to emergency communication services.

Sen. Wallingford stated the 911 system needs modernization. He stated Missouri is the only state with no 911 funding and that 28 counties can't locate where a 911 call originates. Sen. Wallingford stated that most people don't realize the 911 service is not the same statewide and that the FCC recommends consolidation. He stated Missouri can't even apply for grants since it doesn't have a statewide network. He stated this bill will allow for statewide consolidation and the establishment of a 911 board. He stated funding would be at the county level by public vote up to 1% and that from 1% to 1.5% would need state board approval and could generate $7M annually.

- Sen. Munzlinger asked what would be consolidated? Sen. Wallingford stated the 163 public answering points in 114 counties and that they can't get funding from the federal grants without statewide coordination.
- Sen. Munzlinger stated that some counties don't even have 911 addressing and he has had difficulty in getting county commissioners in his district interested. He asked if this would be mandatory? Sen. Wallingford stated there would be funding available from the surcharge and that with statewide coordination it might help.

In Support of SB 233

Rance Duffy (Executive Director Christian County Emergency Services, Missouri Chapter NENA)

Duffy stated Missouri is about 15 years behind and that lack of statewide coordination is causing us to miss out on federal funds. He stated new technology is coming and would encourage consolidation and that the current law is restrictive in how they can coordinate.

Eric Wienberg (sp) (Public Safety Coordinator in Kansas City)

Wienberg stated there is a lot of duplication of effort.

Jr Webb (911 Director, Springfield)

Webb indicated this will help areas get funding and support. He indicated he has been involved with two consolidations and that it can happen.

John Bradley (Retired State Rep., Marion County)

Bradley indicated they don't have "Phase 2" 911 and that if you come into Polk County on I-29 and don't know where you are 911 can't find you. He stated they have had to have people drive to the nearest crossroads to direct emergency personnel.

In Opposition of SB 233: None

For Information Only on SB 233: None

SB 198 (Schaaf) - Enacts a regulatory scheme for weigh station and inspection site bypass services.

Sen. Schaaf stated it costs $9 when a truck sits in a weigh station line and there is technology which allows them to bypass weigh scales and still be weighed in, but only one company PrePass provides that in Missouri. He stated that employees of MoDOT sit on the company's board and they don't allow the sharing of data. Sen. Schaaf stated it is costing the state money and this will move the scales under the Highway Patrol from MoDOT and require the sharing of data. He stated it will provide consistent rules and no arbitrary limits on the number of sites. Sen. Schaaf indicated the fiscal note costs can be removed with one sentence in the legislation.

- Sen. Schatz asked how this will save money? Sen. Schaaf stated they won't have to have staff to run weigh station. Sen. Schatz stated that if the vehicle is out of compliance it will still have to pull over and so the weigh stations will still need to be staffed. Sen. Schaaf stated that this will allow more collection of better data and facilitate competition to allow lower cost.
- Sen. Libla stated that the users pay for system when it is going and would like to visit with someone from the company.
- Sen. Munzlinger asked who paid for the weigh and motion systems currently in place? Sen. Schaaf stated that we "the state" pays for the data and we should have access to it. Sen. Munzlinger asked who should have access? Sen. Schaaf indicated the people of Missouri. Sen. Munzlinger stated if this is another company who wants the data, they should pay for it. Sen. Schaaf stated that is not what he is talking about. He stated that MoDOT gets all the information after the fact and we can't get it from MoDOT, it is not able to be sunshined.
- Sen. Munzlinger indicated he would like to allow competition, but would like more information.
- Sen. Schatz stated this is about the equipment which reads weight and motion and the sharing of that equipment and should a company have to place new equipment when it already exist?

Brian Heath (Drivewyze)

Heath stated that there are conditions which stop them from operating in Missouri. He stated regulators sit on a competitor's company's board and this is a corrupt process. He would like a fair and level playing field and to let the marketplace decide.

- Sen. Libla asked if Heath had called the Highway Patrol and MoDOT corrupt? Heath stated no, he called the process corrupt and that they had been involved in a pilot program which had been "killed". Sen. Libla asked for more information on the pilot and if Heath had gotten any money from Missouri for the pilot? Heath stated no.
- Sen. Libla asked how much Drivewyze has invested in Missouri? Heath stated they have invested in the technology and in personnel. Sen. Libla asked for a list of state where Drivewyze has been installed. Heath indicated that is unique.
- Sen. Libla indicated that MoDOT has an RFP out right now and Drivewyze has an opportunity. Heath indicated the RFP was not fair and grandfathered the prior company in.
- Sen. Dixon asked about the pilot project? Heath stated the pilot was a way to share information and it had been successful and had no written complaints.
- Sen. Dixon asked why it had not moved forward? Heath stated because the Col. of the Highway Patrol sat on the company's board. Sen. Dixon asked if the pilot was not successful because it was not 100% accurate? Heath stated they were asked to meet a requirement they were not allowed to meet. Sen. Dixon stated they were not 100% accurate and it was based on cell phone technology. Heath stated it was based on cellular technology not cell phones and the devices use GPS and cellular service. Sen. Dix stated it was subject to network outages.
- Sen. Dixon indicated Drivewyze had told him that Prime was a customer, but when he talked to Prime they are not currently a customer. Heath stated they are not currently a customer, but use his technology.
- Heath indicated that new companies have to have ASTM level 3 equipment, but PrePass can use the ASTM level 2 equipment. He asked for a level playing field.
- Sen. Schatz stated Heath might want to say "conflict of interest" instead of "corrupt".
- Heath stated that under PrePass the shareholders are getting the money. Sen. Libla stated that HELP and PrePass are public-private partnerships and don't have shareholders.
- Heath stated they are willing to share the cost for the access.

Richard McIntosh (Lobbyist, Drivewyze)

McIntosh stated they are not asking for a free ride and had tried all other options and this was the last resort. He stated the RFP requires new companies to meet standards the existing companies are not required to meet.

David Binder (Drivewyze)

Binder stated he spent 25 years in law enforcement and the MSHP is the premier agency who we look to for best practices. He stated in Florida the highway patrol has removed themselves from the PrePass Board. He stated they can do dynamic messaging and that other companies aren't being made to do what they can do. He stated it is not fair that Drivewyze has to do what the other companies do, but the other companies don't have to do what Drivewyze does.

- Sen. Libla indicated he was glad the boards exist and they provide a valuable service.

The committee adjourned due to the time and will continue this hearing next week.

Friends,

In this AP story, Alderwoman Megan-Ellyia Green, sponsor of the pro-abortion Board Bill 203, admits that “her ordinance wasn’t sparked by any specific case or current law.”

Last week, Alderwoman Christine Ingrassia, a cosponsor of Board Bill 203, testified in Jefferson City against HB 174 – a pro-life bill which would nullify the abortion-promoting effects of Board Bill 203. During her testimony, Alderwoman Ingrassia offered no specific examples of “discrimination” that had occurred in the City of St. Louis.

In other words, Board Bill 203 bill was enacted without any real cases of “discrimination” having occurred.

But the discrimination the enactment of the ordinance causes is real – discrimination against religious institutions, business owners, non-profit agencies and people of faith and moral conviction who do not want to be forced to participate in abortion.

St. Louis ordinance seeks to pre-empt Missouri abortion laws

By KATIE KULL
Associated Press

JEFFERSON CITY, Mo. (AP) -- A new ordinance in St. Louis prohibits discrimination based on "reproductive health decisions," an effort by the heavily Democratic city to pre-empt a slew of anti-abortion measures advancing through Missouri's Republican-controlled Legislature. While largely symbolic, the ordinance that took effect last week bans employers from firing, refusing to hire or disciplining women because they have an abortion, take contraception, use artificial insemination or become pregnant out of wedlock.

Alderwoman Megan Ellyia Green said her ordinance wasn't sparked by any specific case or current law. Rather, she viewed it as a way for the city to stake out its opposition to future laws enacted in Missouri, where Republicans now control all corners of government.

"I think a lot of advocates believe that those types of bills and that type of language is the future of discrimination," Green said.

Last year, Missouri lawmakers killed a measure that several other GOP-led states approved letting companies cite a religious objection in denying employment or services. Such proposals - including a federal one applying to government contractors - were decried as discriminatory against the LGBT community, but Green said it's not too far a stretch to imagine similar legislation targeting women for their pregnancy decisions.

Peter Karutz, a senior partner at MDD Forensic Accountants, said that while the St. Louis ordinance claims to roll back discrimination, it actually infringes on the religious rights of business owners.

"Businesses are not owned by robots," said Karutz, who is also the president of the St. Louis chapter of an organization for Catholic business leaders. "They're owned by people, and under the Constitution, people have the right to have their own beliefs."

Religious organizations and several Republican legislators have spoken out against the St. Louis ordinance, and Gov. Eric Greitens has signaled he'll fight against it.

"We need to send a clear message: the people of Missouri do not support Abortion Sanctuary Cities," Greitens posted on Facebook last weekend about the ordinance.

Greitens' spokesman Parker Briden didn't respond to calls from The Associated Press.

Washington D.C., Boston and the state of Delaware all enacted laws in recent years prohibiting discrimination based on reproductive health decisions. But the partisan differences between leaders of St. Louis City Hall and the Missouri Statehouse raise the potential for a more direct clash down the road.

State laws usually override city laws, so St. Louis' resistance may prove futile if Missouri legislators ultimately approve the kind of law the ordinance seeks to fend off. On Thursday, the Arkansas Supreme Court struck down a city ordinance banning discrimination based on sexual orientation or gender identity because of a state law prohibiting such local protections.

Employment lawyer Ben Westhoff said the St. Louis ordinance would "more explicitly stake out a protected class for women." But, he said current law likely already allows women to sue for sex discrimination if they're penalized based on reproductive health decisions.

The ordinance also includes an exception for religious institutions, religious health care facilities or "any educational institution with historic religious affiliation." Still, the Archdiocese of St. Louis plans to take legal action opposing it because it wouldn't allow small business owners to act in accordance with their religious beliefs, general counsel Thomas Buckley said.

Missouri Sen. Wayne Wallingford, a Republican from Cape Girardeau, has filed legislation essentially negating the St. Louis ordinance. He argues that the measure doesn't extend the same level of protection to crisis pregnancy centers and other facilities that encourage women to choose alternatives to abortion.

"I can't change my race; I can't change my color, my age ... whether I'm paralyzed. These are things you have no control over," Wallingford said. "But now you could discriminate against a behavior" instead of an attribute protected by the law.

Andrea Miller, the president of the National Institute for Reproductive Health, said the nondiscrimination ordinances are part of a "groundswell" of reproductive health measures passing at the city and state levels.

Between 2010 and 2016, states have enacted more than 330 measures to restrict abortion access, according to the Guttmacher Institute. Miller said that over that time, cities have taken an active role in protecting abortion and contraceptive rights.

"Elected officials in cities understand intimately the needs of their constituencies," Miller said. "Especially with the movement of states in the opposite directions, cities have a real opportunity to just address the real needs that they see day to day."

He stated Missouri can't even apply for grants since it doesn't have a statewide network. He stated this bill will allow for statewide consolidation and the establishment of a 911 board. He stated funding would be at the county level by public vote up to 1% and that from 1% to 1.5% would need state board approval and could generate $7M annually.

SB 198 (Schaaf) - Enacts a regulatory scheme for weigh station and inspection site bypass services.

Sen. Schaaf stated it costs $9 when a truck sits in a weigh station line and there is technology which allows them to bypass weigh scales and still be weighed in, but only one company PrePass provides that in Missouri. He stated that employees of MoDOT sit on the company's board and they don't allow the sharing of data. Sen. Schaaf stated it is costing the state money and this will move the scales under the Highway Patrol from MoDOT and require the sharing of data. He stated it will provide consistent rules and no arbitrary limits on the number of sites. Sen. Schaaf indicated the fiscal note costs can be removed with one sentence in the legislation.

- Sen. Schatz asked how this will save money? Sen. Schaaf stated they won't have to have staff to run weigh station. Sen. Schatz stated that if the vehicle is out of compliance it will still have to pull over and so the weigh stations will still need to be staffed. Sen. Schaaf stated that this will allow more collection of better data and facilitate competition to allow lower cost.
- Sen. Libla stated that the users pay for system when it is going and would like to visit with someone from the company.
- Sen. Munzlinger asked who paid for the weigh and motion systems currently in place? Sen. Schaaf stated that we "the state" pays for the data and we should have access to it. Sen. Munzlinger asked who should have access? Sen. Schaaf indicated the people of Missouri. Sen. Munzlinger stated if this is another company who wants the data, they should pay for it. Sen. Schaaf stated that is not what he is talking about. He stated that MoDOT gets all the information after the fact and we can't get it from MoDOT, it is not able to be sunshined.
- Sen. Munzlinger indicated he would like to allow competition, but would like more information.
- Sen. Schatz stated this is about the equipment which reads weight and motion and the sharing of that equipment and should a company have to place new equipment when it already exists?

Brian Heath (Drivewyze)

Heath stated that there are conditions which stop them from operating in Missouri. He stated regulators sit on a competitor's company's board and this is a corrupt process. He would like a fair and level playing field and to let the marketplace decide.

- Sen. Libla asked if Heath had called the Highway Patrol and MoDOT corrupt? Heath stated no, he called the process corrupt and that they had been involved in a pilot program which had been "killed". Sen. Libla asked for more information on the pilot and if Heath had gotten any money from Missouri for the pilot? Heath stated no.
- Sen. Libla asked how much Drivewyze has invested in Missouri? Heath stated they have invested in the technology and in personnel. Sen. Libla asked for a list of states where Drivewyze has been installed. Heath indicated that is unique.
- Sen. Libla indicated that MoDOT has an RFP out right now and Drivewyze has an opportunity. Heath indicated the RFP was not fair and grandfathered the prior company in.
- Sen. Dixon asked about the pilot project? Heath stated the pilot was a way to share information and it had been successful and had no written complaints.
- Sen. Dixon asked why it had not moved forward? Heath stated because the Col. of the Highway Patrol sat on the company's board. Sen. Dixon asked if the pilot was not successful because it was not 100% accurate? Heath stated they were asked to meet a requirement they were not allowed to meet. Sen. Dixon stated they were not 100% accurate and it was based on cell phone technology. Heath stated it was based on cellular technology not cell phones and the devices use GPS and cellular service. Sen. Dix stated it was subject to network outages.

- Sen. Dixon indicated Drivewyze had told him that Prime was a customer, but when he talked to Prime they are not currently a customer. Heath stated they are not currently a customer, but use his technology.
- Heath indicated that new companies have to have ASTM level 3 equipment, but PrePass can use the ASTM level 2 equipment. He asked for a level playing field.
- Sen. Schatz stated Heath might want to say "conflict of interest" instead of "corrupt".
- Heath stated that under PrePass the shareholders are getting the money. Sen. Libla stated that HELP and PrePass are public-private partnerships and don't have shareholders.
- Heath stated they are willing to share the cost for the access.

Richard McIntosh (Lobbyist, Drivewyze)

David Binder (Drivewyze)

Binder stated he spent 25 years in law enforcement and the MSHP is the premier agency who we look to for best practices. He stated in Florida the highway patrol has removed themselves from the PrePass Board. He stated they can do dynamic messaging and that other companies aren't being made to do what they can do. He stated it is not fair that Drivewyze has to do what the other companies do, but the other companies don't have to do what Drivewyze does.

- Sen. Libla indicated he was glad the boards exist and they provide a valuable service.

PUBLIC TESTIMONY

*PRIORITY* HB 130 (Matthews) SCS HCS HB 130 was voted DO PASS 4-1 with Sen. Romine voting no. - Establishes a regulatory system for transportation network companies. Rep. Matthews indicated this will create a statewide regulatory system for ride sharing such as Uber and Lyft. He indicated Uber has stated this will create 10,000 new jobs in Missouri. Rep. Matthews indicated the service is in high demand especially among business travelers, helps reduce drunk driving, and provides mobility for the visually impaired. He stated this is almost identical to SB 185 and passed out of the House with 140 votes. Rep. Matthews stated it includes the compliance audits for Kansas City and is a free market bill.

- Sen. Romine asked if Rep. Matthews had any concerns about the amendments on the bill? Rep. Matthews stated he did not.

In Support of HB 130

Bobby Kellman (Manager of Policy Issues for Uber)

Kellman stated this will create 10,000 new jobs in Missouri, provides for background checks, and through the audit process allows for transparency. He stated it is identical to Sen. Onder's bill.

In Opposition of HB 130*Basil Rudawsky (St. Louis County Cab Company)*

Rudawsky stated he has been working with Sen. Schatz's office to create parity language. He stated what they have developed doesn't change the existing language, it just includes cabs wherever Transportation Network Companies (TNCs) are mentioned. Rudawsky asks that whichever version of the bill moves forward, that cabs are given the equitable treatment in that language.

- Sen. Schatz asked if Sen. Onder had any objections to this language? Rudawsky stated they were meeting with him this afternoon, but he was not aware of Sen. Onder having any objections.
- Sen. Schatz indicated he wants this to create a level playing field with no special carve outs.
- Sen. Romine asked Rep. Matthews if he was comfortable with this language? Rep. Matthews indicated that if cab companies need legislative changes they should propose them. He indicated elements would still be different and that no he is not comfortable with it as it is.
- Sen. Curls stated that the elderly and disabled are two groups she is concerned for and wants to make sure cabs are protected also.
- Rep. Matthews indicated that a taxi can register as a TNC. He indicated that things in the bill goes a long way toward parity, but when it comes to insurance cabs don't want parity. Rep. Matthews states that TNCs will have $1M in insurance and cabs only have $400,000.
- Rep. Matthews indicated there is nothing in the bill to stop cabs from operating.
- Sen. Schatz asked if cabs would be alright with the same level of insurance. Rudawsky indicated the TNC insurance was not available to the general public and that it is a special TNC policy. He stated that commercial policies are for 24/7 and Uber's policy only has $1M when they are on a trip, not any other times. Rudawsky stated it would be an unfair hardship to have the $1M policy. Sen. Schatz stated he was not sure it would create that much of a hardship. Rudawsky stated that last year Uber was alright with the cabs having a different insurance level.

Robert Glenn (St. Louis Taxi Driver)

Glenn indicated he has to pay for yearly physicals and taxes and that those cost should be applied to all.

Chidiogo Ozumba (St. Louis Taxi Driver)

Ozumba stated he has been a taxi driver for 21 years and that business is down because of Uber. He stated that the same rules and regulations should apply to all. Ozumba indicated that every year he has to pay $125 for a license, $50 for a physical, and $50 for a drug test. He stated cabs have to pay $4 every time they go to the airport and Uber drivers don't. Ozumba stated that the Taxi Commission can pull him over for not being in uniform, not shaving, etc. Sen. Schatz stated he believes that cab are overregulated by the Taxi Commission.

Zerebrok Gebru (St. Louis Metro Taxi Driver)

Gebru indicated he drove cabs from 1987 to 1994 and since 1994 has worked as a ???. He stated all they want is equal protection under the law. He stated that the taxi industry is caught up with the technology and can take credit cards and PayPal.

Garon Holman (Cab Driver for 5 Years, St. Louis Area)

Holman stated he has worked in law enforcement in the past and that standards mean something. He stated that children and elderly can count on cab drivers to be drug free and meet other standards. Holman stated that Uber drivers have standards, but the taxi cab standards are more strict and he urges the committee to be fair.

- Sen. Curls stated that the cabs are over regulated by the Taxi Commission and hopes that can be worked out.
- Holman indicated he believes in having standards.

*Bill George (KC Transportation Group)*For Information Only on HB 130*John Bardgett (Lobbyist for St. Louis Metro Taxi Corporation)*

Bardgett indicated this is a great service for cities and counties and that if a couple of state statutes could be removed the Taxi Commission could rewrite the code to ease regulation. He indicated the proposed language to allow cabs to pick annually if they want to be a TNC or a Taxi would be difficult for the industry to manage and hard to regulate.

Bill Gamble (Lobbyist City of Kansas City)

Gamble indicated Kansas City wants to remain neutral and that they appreciate the audit language and want to work with the committee and cabs to maintain parity. He stated a few points for the committee to keep in mind:

- The meters in cabs need to be regulated and checked.
- Uber has transparency on rates charged, but that taxi rates need to be regulated.
- Cabs have a designated lot at airports for security.
- Drivers need to be fingerprinted for security.

Gamble stated that Kansas City is willing to work with all, but that a rental car agency is out language shopping and has proposed language which undoes the fee which supports the Sprint Center. He stated this will unravel Kansas City's ability to pay off its bonds.

- Sen. Curls asked about if this was a local tax or fee. Gamble stated they had ran it past their legal group and feel firmly that it will affect the funding source voted on by people.
- Sen. Munzlinger asked if the meters were not already checked by the Department of Agriculture? Gamble stated they check them.

Rep. Matthews stated that Bardgett's reference to cabs picking whether they want to be a TNC or cab annually is not in this year's bill. He stated it was in last year's version and there are different levels to consider when talking about parity.
